Halloween Hits Sugar Bean

Sugar Bean Big Boo will be held at Sugar Bean from 10:00—1:00 P.M. on October 31st. Everyone is welcome. Please reserve your spot by October 27th.

No hurricanes hit Galveston this year, but an island exclusive Halloween Carnival, Sugar Bean Big Boo, will be just as massive. From 10:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. on October 31st, you can treat yourself to 2 slices of pizza, a drink and lots of fun entertainment with the rest of the Galveston community. The event, costing $8 per person, is open to anyone, and will be held at Sugar Bean by reservations only. "We 'spook' rain or shine," Sugar Bean manager Jennifer Taylor says. With lots of events, a cookie walk, make your own mask, bobbing for apples, pumpkin painting, face painting and a piñata, you and your family are sure to have fun. Please call (409) 974-4473 by October 27 or stop by Sugar Bean to reserve your spot. Don't forget to wear your Halloween costume! The counter will also be open to take special drink orders. Be sure and try our season favorites, the Carmel Apple Smoothie and Mocha Pumpkin Frappe!

Trick or "Treat" Yourself

Candy isn't the only thing you can treat yourself with this October, because Sugar Bean has new snacks that will be just as satisfying. The new food, prepared by Biscotti Icasiano, includes: bagels with cream cheese, hummus with pita bread, basil cheese spread with crackers, and fruit, yogurt and granola cups. Sugar Bean employee, Sophia Stewart says "the fruit, yogurt and granola cup is my favorite—well actually it is so hard to decide which one out of all of them is really the best." Along with these new yummy treats Sugar Bean also has scones, muffins and an assortment of delicious beverages. Be sure and treat yourself to these delectable foods and drinks. For personal deliveries you can contact Biscotti Icasiano via website at www.biscottiicasiano.com.
